Uncomfortable isolation. Unbearable loss. Uncertain future. In every way it's been an uneasy year. But now is your time to live again. Shake off the darkness. Roll back the fear. Step into the Light. Hope is Rising! Join us at Woodside and receive God's unstoppable Hope.

Woodside 75th Anniversary Celebration

On April 28, 1946 about 80 followers of Jesus came together to plant a tree called Woodside. Seventy-five years later we continue to grow deeper, higher, and farther. We are celebrating this milestone with 75 days of prayer and praise, study and service. Join us as we branch out and bear more fruit for Jesus! See our website for more details and ways to participate.

75K Challenge for Family Promise

In celebration of our 75th Anniversary, our elders are asking the Woodside community to give $75,000 to Family Promise as seed money for a community center in Lower Bucks which can house and help homeless families. Give online or indicate on your offering envelope.

Spring Recovery Luncheon and Worship;

Sunday, May 16 for those in recovery and all who support them. Luncheon will begin at 12:30 pm, service starts at 1:30 pm. Both will be held outside but will move inside if needed. All are welcome, bring your own chair, masks are required. Contact Scott Burgess at sbdfol@verizon.net for more info.

Woodside is looking for a Part-Time Sexton

Assistant to support cleaning, maintenance and events. Most work is performed during evening hours and weekends. Interested people can contact Bruce Jones at bruce@woodside-church.org and/or submit a resume.
